	3.	PERMANENT RESIDENCE FOR FOREIGN INVESTORS THROUGH BOARD OF INVESTMENT OF THAILAND (Based on OBOI Announcement No. Por 9/1997)
		Over the years, many foreign investors and businessmen have sought permanent residence in the Kingdom of Thailand. To accommodate these requests, the Board of Investment (BOI) established criteria for granting permanent residence in 1989, and amended the guidelines in 1997. Applicants must submit all necessary documents to Investment Promotion Division 7 of the BOI, no later than May 12, 2000. There are four categories under which foreigners or expatriated Thai nationals can apply for permanent residence in Thailand. In each case, the applicant and family member must not possess traits that, under Thai immigration law, would disqualify them from permanent residency such as having been imprisoned for any offense except for petty offenses, having has a residence permit withdrawn, or having behaved on a manner which is regarded as dangerous to society of threatening to the public. The four categories are as follows:
	3.1	DIRECT INVESTMENT
	3.1.1	Applicants must invest a minimum of 10 million baht in a new project that either is eligible for investment promotion under the Investment Promotion Act or which meets the criteria set forth by the Committee for Granting Permanent Residence.
		If the project is not eligible for investment promotion by the BOI, the project must benefit the country in the following ways: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Produce for export Increase employment Utilize indigenous raw materials Locate in provincial areas Encourage technology transfer to Thai nationals Projects in the following categories will not be taken into consideration : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Those which are restricted under Proclamation No. 281 of the Revolutionary Council. Those which compete in such a way as to destroy existing domestic businesses Those which hinder the growth of existing domestic businesses or domestic businesses which have not yet been developed. For projects eligible for investment promotion, which have already submitted an application for promotional status or have already been granted promotion status, the applicant must bring in funds to invest in a new project that has not started operations. Such investment must be in the form of a joint-venture in a newly or already established company. This joint-venture must economically benefit the project (for example, by assisting in export marketing or by bringing in appropriate technology).

		3.1.2 Remitted funds must be invested in ordinary shares of the limited company that is set up to implement the approved project. The applicant must hold more than 25 percent of the registered capital unless the size of the project exceeds 100 million baht, excluding the cost of land and working capital. In that case, the shareholding criteria may be relaxed.
		3.1.3 The applicant must maintain the qualifications under 3.1.1 and 3.1.2 for at least three years from the date permanent residence is granted.
		3.1.4 Applicants may apply for permanent residence for himself and the following family members : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Spouse Parents Not more than three children who are unmarried and under 20 years old.
		3.2 INDIRECT INVESTMENT IN SECURITIES AND BUYING CONDOMINIUM
		Foreign investors must invest in either special government bonds designated by the Ministry of Finance and the Bank of Thailand, State Enterprise bonds, or condominiums. The amount of the required investment is: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 8 million baht for the investor 6 million baht for a spouse 2 million baht per unmarried child under the age of 20 For purchases of either governmental state enterprise bonds, the bonds may not be transferred or redeemed for a period of 5 years. In the case of purchase of a condominium whose project has been registered with the BOI, the condominium must not be sold for a minimum of 5 years, and may not be used as collateral for a loan. For approval, the Committee will take into consideration the documentation on the purchase of the bonds or condominiums and the qualifications of the investor.

		3.3	EXPERTS
			Applicants must possess technical know-how or expertise that is in demand and will benefit the country. Educational or employment references, certified by the Royal Thai Embassy or Consulate, must be submitted. In countries where there is neither a Royal Thai Embassy nor a Consulate, the document must be certified by a Notary Public. Applicants must submit documentation indicating that he/she has an annual income of not less than US$ 10,000. The applicant must not be less than 25 years of age.
